I, Daniel T. Satterberg, Prosecuting Attorney for King County in the name and by the authority of the State of Washington, do accuse PHILLIP E HASKINS of the following crime[s]: Hate Crime, committed as follows:

Count 1 Hate Crime

That the defendant PHILLIP E HASKINS in King County, Washington, on or about March 2, 2022, maliciously and intentionally and because of his perception of the race of Reavy Dordy Washington, did threaten a specific person or specific group of persons, to-wit: Reavy Dordy Washington, and place that person or members of that group of persons in reasonable fear of harm to person and/or property;

Contrary to RCW 9A.36.080(1)(c), and against the peace and dignity of the State of Washington.

3 PROSECUTING ATTORNEY CASE SUMMARY AND REQUEST FOR BAIL AND/OR
4 CONDITIONS OF RELEASE

5 The State incorporates by reference the Certification for Determination of Probable Cause
6 prepared by Detective Elizabeth Wareing of the Seattle Police Department for case number
7 2022-053038.

8
9 Pursuant to CrR 2.2(b)(2), the State requests that the Court issue a summons for the 10 defendant to appear. The Court released the defendant on his personal recognizance at First 11 Appearance over the State's objection. The State requests that the Court order the defendant to 12 not have contact with Reavy Dordy Washington.

13
14 On March 3, 2022, the defendant made threats to kill the victim, Reavy Dordy
15 Washington, after the victim attempted to calm the defendant down inside a 7-11. The defendant
16 yelled several racial slurs and told the victim to "go back to Africa" and that if he came outside
17 that he would kill him. The victim feared that if he did leave the store, that the threat would be 18 carried out.

19
20 At the time of filing the defendant has no known criminal convictions in Washington
21 State. However, according to the certification for determination of probable cause the defendant
22 has the following criminal conviction history out of State: Reckless Endangerment (Alaska),
23 Assault 4 – Cause fear of imminent injury (Alaska) x 2, Violation of a Domestic Violence

24 Protective Order (Alaska) Assault – Recklessly Cause Injury (Alaska), Assault with injury

OF PROBABLE CAUSE

GENERAL OFFENSE # 2022-053038
UNIT FILE NUMBER

That Elizabeth Wareing is a Detective with the Seattle Police Department and has reviewed the investigation conducted in Seattle Police Department Case Number 2022-053038;

There is probable cause to believe that Phillip Eulean Haskins 03/16/1983 committed the crime(s) of Hate Crime Offense RCW 9A.36.090 and Felony Harassment RCW 9A.46.020 within the City of Seattle, County of King, State of Washington.

This belief is predicated on the following facts and circumstances:

On 03/02/22 at 2007 hrs. Allison Price called 911 from the cooler of the 7-Eleven at 2009 Rainier Avenue S in Seattle, Washington. Price told the dispatcher that a customer was "yelling because he wanted to pay for his gas and didn't want to wait, and was yelling bias words [from CAD call as entered by dispatcher]." Price said that the man had taken a gun out of his right pants or jacket pocket. She said that the weapon was wrapped in a facemask.

Officers arrived and contacted Allison Price and Reavy Washington. They indicated the suspect had driven from the scene in a white sedan headed southbound on Rainier Avenue S. Price and Washington told officers they were standing in line in the 7-Eleven, waiting to purchase items. There was a line because the credit card reader was not working properly. The suspect was in line with food items to purchase. He began angrily shouting that he did not want to wait and that he needed food. Washington recalled him saying, "I want to fucking eat! No one will give me food! I need food!" Price and Washington described his behavior as yelling at the "top of his lungs." He went to the front of the line in front of others to cut the line. When the card terminal did not work the man began yelling again. Washington said that he told him to be quiet, because no one wanted to hear him yelling. The man angrily turned on Washington.

Washington and Price indicated the suspect threatened to kill Washington. Price said that she saw the man remove an item that she thought was a small handgun wrapped in a facemask from a pocket on his right side (Washington thought it was the left side). Price said that she saw the shape of the item and thought it was a gun. She described sneaking down an aisle into the cooler to call 911, indicating she became scared when she saw him pull out the object. The man called Washington the slur "nigger" and told him to "go back to Africa." Washington described him ranting and calling him "nigger" repeatedly. Price said that she heard him say "nigger" and other anti-black statements "over and over." She heard the man tell Washington he was going to kill him. Washington said that he told him to come outside and he would kill him. Washington said that he doubted the object was a gun because he couldn't see the barrel but did think the man would have assaulted him if he had gone outside. Washington said that he believed he would have to defend himself against the man if he went outside. Washington indicated that he was not the only one commenting on the man's behavior, but he was the only black man in the business and the one only targeted and threatened by the suspect.

At 2011 hrs. a collision was dispatched at Rainier Avenue S and S McClellan Street. That location is .70 miles from the 7-Eleven. Witnesses described the driver of one of the cars, a white 1996 Mercury Grand Marquis bearing Oregon license plate 996KQF registered to Phillip Haskins, was trying to flee. Witness Francisco Sandoval said that the man had gone to the trunk of the car before trying to leave. Officers contacted the driver of the car and identified him as Philip Haskins. Sgt. Adam Elias located a switchblade knife with a blue surgical mask folded around it in Haskins right side jacket pocket. Haskins was positively identified by Washington as the man who had threatened to kill him after an in-person show up at the scene of the collision. Haskins declined to discuss any incident after he was advised of his Miranda Rights. The accident was reportedly caused by Haskins driving through a red light and colliding with two other vehicles.

Haskins has previous convictions for Reckless Endangerment (Alaska), Assault 4 – Cause fear of imminent injury (Alaska) x2, Violation of a Domestic Violence Protective Order (Alaska), Assault – Recklessly Cause Injury (Alaska), Assault with injury (Texas) and Possession of LSD (Texas). He has a pending felony assault case in Alaska related to a 2021 shooting incident.

Under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of Washington, I certify that the foregoing is true and correct to best of my knowledge and belief. Signed and dated by me this 4 day of MARCH, 2022, at Seattle, Washington.
